

Works Cited Format

Bluffton High School's students use MLA formatting for research papers. Below are samples of basic formats on the "Works Cited" page. For a more complete explanation of MLA research papers, please access the Purdue OWL by going to <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/> (used for this information) or by searching Google for owl purdue mla.

Remember to alphabetize all entries. Your parenthetical documentation will be the author's last name from the Works Cited citation plus the page number; ex. (Wiesel 135). If there is no author, the entry will begin with the title. For the parenthetical documentation, use the full title unless the title is longer than five words. Then, use the first short phrase of the title. Example: Buffalo Bill and the Indians, or Sitting Bull's History Lesson would be changed to (Buffalo Bill and the Indians 46). If any bit of information is NOT available, skip it and move to the next piece. Use n.p. for no publisher, n. pag. for no page number, and n.d. for no date.
